

THANKSGIVING DAY AT WAVERLY HOUSE

Waverly House, home to more than 150 public housing elderly residents in Bethesda, had their Thanksgiving Day holiday brightened this year by Ruth's Chris Steak House and a team of volunteers from the community. For the 13th year in a row, Ruth's Chris in Bethesda donated and prepared a sumptuous Thanksgiving Day dinner for the residents. This year, a group of community volunteers and HOC volunteers helped the Ruth's Chris staff serve the dinner.

Waverly House, HOC's elderly public housing in Bethesda

Ruth's Chris Steak House is a Waverly House neighbor in Bethesda

HOC Commissioner Norm Dreyfuss (far left), HOC Commissioner Jean Banks (with her back to the camera) and Andrew Oxendine (far right), HOC Assistant Director of Housing, attended the Thanksgiving dinner at Waverly House. Volunteers from HOC included: Deborah Walker, Property Manager at Arcola Towers, Nancy Davachi, Resident Counselor at Waverly House and Tonya Clark, Regional Manager. also attended, helping to serve the dinner to residents.

Volunteers from the community arrived at Waverly House, ready to help serve Thanksgiving dinner. From left to right: Marcia Kyger, Ben Kyger, Debbie Leyba, Lizzie Wilson, Nicholas Lenon, Laura Kyger, David Kyger, Nicole Lenon, Todd Leyba, Laura Leyba and Scott Leyba.